Pastor's Message

Little Flower Showed Her Power in That Hour

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

While I was driving to our parish church last Sunday for the solemn feast of the Little Flower, St. Theresa of Jesus, one of my friends telephoned me from the church parking lot saying: "Father, the chance of rain is very high. Our procession might not happen. We need to pray hard for a miracle." With confidence I recited three times the old prayer to St. Theresa, "LITTLE FLOWER, IN THIS HOUR, SHOW THY POWER." Then I left that miracle to her and began to think of other matters of the festival. The miracle really happened. The sky became clear and bright sunlight came out with a gentle breeze giving us comfortable atmosphere for the procession and outside fun after the liturgical functions. No one else on the earth could control this weather at that time.

We had similar experience on the other two days of this festival. On Friday, the funeral home officials expressed the concern that they are worried whether there would be rain when we would have the dedication ceremony with the three bishops in the open-air in the cemetery. However, by the grace of God and intercession of St. Theresa the whether was very good. By the end of the dedication ceremony, someone mentioned that we should not take a chance to delay for the flag hoisting of the feast because there was chance for heavy rain. The rain happened immediately after the flag hoisting ceremony. So also rain fell on Saturday only after all the entertainments were over. On Monday after the feast we had rain on the whole day.

St. Theresa kept her promise of showering flowers of grace from heaven. We were blessed to have the closing of the rectory exactly on the first day of the feast. On the same day we have the dedication of the first Knanaya Catholic Cemetery by our three bishops.

St. Theresa has great influence in heaven. Let us continue praying to her for our personal, family, parish, and community needs especially when we are in need of immediate help. Moreover, let us entrust our children and youth to her protection.

SUMMER FESTIVAL

During this summer we have a lot of awareness seminars, food, fun, and games after the church services. So let us continue making our church our second home and enjoy our unity and love. Please support the summer events' committee to make the our summer programs a great success for all of us.

YOUTH RETREAT

Our youth retreat at Bishop Lane Retreat Center in Rockford from July 4 to 7 is going to be a milestone in the spiritual development of our teenagers and youth. I invite all of them to register for this retreat for a great spiritual experience and lot of fun. Our Bishop Mar Jacob Angadiath and many gifted resource persons will be there to help us. Parents may please support your children for this.

With lot of love and prayers

Fr. Abraham Mutholath
