Pastor's Message

What a Wonderful Performance!

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

I am sure all of us who have attended the Religious Education Festival 2011 of our both Knanaya Catholic Parishes held on March 26th at Maine East High School Auditorium, or watched that on the internet, are very much taken up by the performance of all involved in the program. I would like to comment on some of the highlights of the festival.

Many appreciated that we started the program exactly at 6:00 P.M. as he had announced. We need to keep up that in all our future functions. Keeping announced schedule saves the valuable time of all and helps us to finish the program on time. The coordinators arranged all the dances and skits with only 15 seconds of transition time. That also was impressive to all. It saved lot of time of the participants and kept the audience curious without any boring break. People who have been watching on the internet at www.knanayavoice.com also felt that the timing was professional.

All our theatric presentations were message oriented and catechetical. As Vicar General Msgr. George Madathiparambil mentioned in his speech, with the Religious Education Festival, we have revolutionized the concept of Indian dance by adapting them to Christian format. All our five-hour programs were Christian. This year our teachers spent more time to explain to the performers the content and message of what they were performing. Even the viewers had a good chance to reflect on the songs, actions, visuals, and their message. They were catechetical because these skits and dances communicated to the performers and audience the stories that they were not fully aware on the Bible and Knanaya Community.

As some one remarked, this is world record in the number of onstage performers. We had altogether 768 people, including 635 students and 133 teachers all performing the best possible way they could. Besides, we had many working behind the curtain. This collective effort allowed those involved to study the Bible and the history of the Knanaya

Community. Usually only the so-called talented and trained children were given chance on the stage. Since we insist that all students and teachers come on stage, all of them got chance to develop their talents and skills appropriate to their age.

Our theme for the festival was different from past years and relevant to the time. We could celebrate the 10th anniversary of St. Thomas Syro-Malabar Catholic Diocese of Chicago and the 100th anniversary of the Archdiocese of Kottayam. This is the first time we are presenting the Knanaya history beyond the settlement at Kodungalloor. So the skit on the community was informative and attractive. "God's Call and Selection of Humanity" was an appropriate theme because we are part of God's Call to human life and Catholic Faith. Besides, this call, we will be selected to heaven at the final judgment based on our good deeds for others in this world. This festival gave many of us the right direction during the time of lent.

We made maximum use of computerized technology that made more visual impact. This is the first time we have used so much visuals and sound effects along with the acting. They helped us to move us to a higher level of enjoyment and reflection. Thanks to those worked for it.

There was more unification of both parishes. This was our first festival after the establishment of St. Mary's Church. We felt feeling as one community rather than a divided one. We need to promote more combined programs in the future also.

I would like to express again my great appreciation to our Religious Education Students, teachers, and parents of both schools for their outstanding performance and cooperation. Thanks to our DREs: Johny Thekkeparambil, Saji Poothrukayil, Sabu Mutholam and Maneesh Kaimoolayil. Dance choreographers including Mrs. Lalu Palamattom did a wonderful service. The skit on Knanaya Community by Jain Makil and team, and the Biblical presentation prepared by Sibi Alumparambil and Johny Thekkeparambil are outstanding. Benny Thomas, Sunny Joseph, Antony and Lalichen Alumparambil, Saji Malithuruthel, Danny Chakkayath and Pauly Vathikalam did the audio pre-production and sound system during the performance. Shiju Cheiyathil, Siby Jacob, Saji Panayaparambil, and Jose Thoompanal did the special effects. Support of media including Knanaya Voice that did live telecasting, Asianet, Kerala Express, Samgamam, Malayalam Pathram, Joychen Puthukkulam and Apna Des are encouraging. Dominic Col-

My Experience in the Role of "Jesus Christ" at the Religious Education Festival

This year's Religious Education Festival was the best our Knanaya parishes have ever witnessed due to its outstanding organizers, religious education teachers, and the overwhelming amount of talented children at both our parishes in Chicago. It also amazed me at the level of commitment and dedication our Knanaya community in Chicago have, especially those who worked behind the scenes to make this year's event a huge success. They spent hundreds and hundreds of hours of tireless hard work - planning, choreographing, arranging all necessities including costumes, getting the children to practices, and then patiently teaching and rehearsing with the participants. Having directly witnessed the enormous amounts of enthusiasm, hard work, support and encouragement of our teachers, parents and children, I have no doubt that we indeed are an immensely talented and blessed community.

This festival was special to me personally when I was offered to play the role of "Jesus Christ" in three different scenes of the Festival: the story of Zacchaeus, Sinful Woman, and in the 'Last Judgment'. All three of these scenes imparted within me the unique feelings of Jesus Christ himself. In the scene of Zacchaeus, I was able to directly experience the keen observatory skills, warmth, and openness of Jesus as he sought out Zacchaeus far off in a tree and related to him as if Zacchaeus was his own. Also, in the scene of the sinful woman, I felt the calm nature, humility, and courage of Jesus to announce the sins of all around him and give the sinful woman a new life. Yet, after acting in both of these moving episodes of Christ, there still stood the formidable task of depicting the Last

Neil Edat

Judgment: a moment where no one living today can fully describe. But, with the help of the committed coordinators around me and prayer, I poured forth all the emotion inside of my soul to portray, to the best of my ability, the strength and might of our Savior. Even when performing this scene on stage, I sought to convey to the audience the message that no matter where, when, how, or why you sin against someone, you sin against Jesus himself. I personally feel that I was blessed to receive the role of Jesus as it provided me the unique experience of how great a personality Jesus was as a divine and human being.

I'd like to wholeheartedly thank those who made it possible to take part in this life changing experience especially Mr. Sibi Alumparambil, Mrs. Sally Kizhakekkut, Mr. Saji Poothrukayil and Mrs. Mary Alumkal and others for encouraging and inspiring me in successfully preparing for my role of "Jesus Christ". I also want to thank all the parents, uncles and aunts, all my friends and family members who greeted and complimented me after the show. Once again I congratulate all the parents and students of our wonderful Chicago Knanaya community on our success this year in the Religious Education Festival.

lampel did the stills for us. Women ministry did the food service. Stephen and Cimi Kizhakkekuttu took care of the guests. Our sponsors: Cyriac Koovakattil, Shaji Edat, Chackochan Kizhakkekuttu, Joy Nediyaikalayil, Sunny Indikuzhy, Maneesh Kaimoolayil and their families helped us to meet part of the expense. Service of our trustees and service of Sr. Xavier, Sr. Anugraha, and Sr. Jesseena are appreciated. Thanks to Msgr. George Madathilparambil for being present as our guest along with other guests like Cathedral Vicar Fr. Anthony Thundathil and Fr. Jose Naduvilekkutt. It is the great encouragement of Bishop Angadiath that makes this program continue every year. Above all, the general coordinator of this program Mary Alumkal and coordinators Saly Kizhakkekuttu and Sheeba Mutholam did a wonderful leadership role. Our thanks and prayers for all who cooperated in our Religious Education Festival 2011.

With love and prayer,
Fr. Abraham Mutholath
